KTA HR Manager recognized in community

WICHITA, Kan.— Kansas Turnpike Authority Human Resources Manager, Diana Ensign, was selected to be part of the Advance Kansas, Class XI, which is a diversity initiative coordinated through Butler Community College. She is also a 2019 Human Resources Professional honoree by the Wichita Business Journal.

“Our organization has truly benefited from Diana’s hard work and dedication in the HR field,” said Steve Hewitt, KTA CEO. “Thanks to her leadership, we have been able make significant improvements that benefit KTA and our employees.”

In Ensign’s 30-year tenure at the KTA, she has been instrumental in establishing the company’s HR department and is currently leading many modernization efforts.
