KTA announces promotions and new hires

Wichita, KS – The Kansas Turnpike Authority has made multiple promotions within their Information Technology department. Bruce Meisch (Andover) has been named Director of Technology, following the retirement of Marty Wiltse (Derby), who served the KTA for 36 years. Other promotions within IT include:

- Blake Butterworth (Wichita), Application Development Manager
- Anne Elsworth (Haysville), Audit Manager
- Nick Parrott (Derby), Network & Security Manager

There have also been new additions to the organization. The new hires include:

- Jason Weber (Derby), Outreach Coordinator
- Dena Smoot (Atlanta), Marketing & Communications Administrative Assistant
- Amanda Miller (Mulvane), Communications Specialist

The KTA is excited about the changes within its organization. For more information on KTA employment opportunities, visit http://www.ksturnpike.com/employment/current_opportunities.
